Make Sure You Bring Your Appetite Here!

by Steven Peter

If you have a hankering for Greek Gyro's, have I got the place for you! If you got a wild desire for homemade food, that same place applies? Do you want to get an extra-large order as you may be very hungry, follow along here? Your sweet tooth seems to be craving a malt or a milk shake, same place applies? Have an itching for Tiramisu or a macaroon cookie, look no further? Haven't seen a good 'Philly sandwich' in a while, try this Philly Chicken? With fresh baked pastries, healthy vegetarian sandwiches, three different types of parmesan sandwiches baked to perfection and a 'killer' mac-n-cheese sandwich, we may begin to run out of superlatives.

The place I'm talking about has easy Highway 18 access and sits close to a little village or cluster of cabins known as Willow Woods, back in the day. Well, right across the street and on the corner of Kuf-fel Canyon sits, as you may have guessed it, The Hungry Bear. And so the name applies if that's you, looking for something to really fill you up. Remember, you can double and triple stack most of the sandwiches.

The Hungry Bear is more known for their 'pulled pork' sandwiches, but they make so many other favorites too many to count. Having recently installed a machine called a 'Nespresso'. The $25,000 machine is called a 'Aguila' and is known to make the best expressos, lattes, and cappuccinos in the Inland Empire. The Hungry Bear has moved beyond being just a deli to a full service restaurant serving the patrons from 7:30AM until 7:30PM. And if you want to include the pastries, pies, and cheesecake, you may be in trouble. And to make it even more appealing, go online and check the Yelp and Facebook reviews and 5 star accolades why they are touted the 'Best Deli on the Mountain!'
